AN INFAMOUS PLOT.

Great Anarchist Conspiracy in Washington.

TO BLOW UP THE CAPITOL.

The Plot Also Included the Treasury—The Deadly Compound to be Used.

The startling intelligence of an infamous plot to blow up the national capital and treasury building at Washington is given in the following dispatch to the Kansas City Times of today and will cause the American people to experience a thrill of horror at contemplating the fiendish cruelty of those engaged in the awful conspiracy:

"An anarchist plot to blow up the public buildings in Washington has been discovered by the district police.

The leader of the anarchists is H. J. Jaxon, a half-breed French Canadian who has for years been closely identified with the Chicago anarchists, and whose office has been located in the Times building in that city.

For weeks past a house at 1921 Vermont avenue in this city, where the secret meetings of the anarchists have been held, has been watched by the police, and a man named De Masters, known both as doctor and professor, and an ex-Episcopalian minister, has attended the meetings and is the informant.

The formula from which the explosives were to be made has been obtained, and the compound made and tested. It is the latest hellish device of the anarchists and explodes from the heat of the sun, throwing out a deadly poisonous vapor. No arrests have yet been made and the police refuse to reveal the full information and have sought to keep the story from the papers. Knowledge of the plot became, however, too generally known to prevent a leak.

Sergeant-at-Arms-Bright of the senate was the first to receive any information. The vice president was then informed; also the night watch at the capitol, and the speaker of the house. Secretary Carlisle was told of a plot against the treasury department, and the president was also informed of the situation. With the police working steadily on the case for weeks past, not enough information has been obtained upon which certainty of conviction could be assured, and for this reason the arrests have been postponed day after day.

Jaxon's presence in the city was hinted at in the telegraphic dispatches before the arrival of Coxey. He came here before the commonwealth army, and rode over the route which Coxey would follow.

The information which De Masters brought was that Jaxon had expected to find no difficulty in organizing a strong association of anarchists here, and that it was also expected that anarchists would flock in here from all directions with the commonwealthers. Jaxon was disappointed in finding the local anarchists, but on the day of the commonwealth parade reds came from New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, and a meeting was held. A hint of this message was given the police at the time, but the suspects departed and the fear temporarily subsided.

Shortly after this Sergeant-at-Arms Bright received a letter which was of such an earnest nature warning him of a plot to blow up the capitol and other public buildings that he decided to investigate. It was one of hundreds of letters that he had received, but the earnestness manifested by the writer caused him to make an investigation. He consulted with Major Moore, superintendent of the district police, and the author of the letter was met per agreement, and proved to be the ex-preacher, De Masters, who had been taken in by the Anarchists. De Masters was put under pay, and instructed to attend all the meetings. He did so, and made daily reports to the chief of police. Word was finally brought that with the arrival of Frye's army, now in the Cumberland valley, there would be an influx of anarchists and that the time for putting the plans into execution would then be ripe. It was decided to wait until then before making any arrests, and in the meantime Jaxon and his followers have obtained information that they were being watched.

Even with the knowledge that the facts were to be published, the police tonight refused to give out the information in their possession as to the extent of the plot or the names of the men who were associated with Jaxon. It is settled that eight men met regularly at 1821 Vermont avenue, but whether this comprised all those in the plot could not be learned. Jaxon will be remembered as chief lieutenant to Louis Reil in the half-breed Canadian rebellion. Tonight it is believed all the anarchists have fled."

KILLED ON A TRESTLE.

A Track Walker Meets Death While Sleeping on the Rail.

M., K. & T. passenger train No. 4, which left here at 7:15 o'clock last Saturday night for St. Louis, struck and killed a track walker four and one-half miles this side of Portland, on the M., K. & E., that night.

The name of the unfortunate man was not learned. He had grown weary, most likely, and sat down on the end of a tie on a trestle, with his lantern at his side, and fell asleep.

He was seen by the engineer, but an effort to stop the train proved of no avail, and the engine struck him, knocking him a distance of fully thirty feet.

The remains were picked up and taken to Providence, where an inquest was held.

A Bad Man from Kentucky Runs Amuck.

HE SHOT A POLICEMAN.

In Turn He Was Shot Dead in His Tracks—Nothing Known Regarding Him.

A stranger from Barbersville, Ky., arrived in Moberly last evening, partially intoxicated, and was creating so much disturbance that Officer Penn started to arrest him.

Quick as a flash the Kentuckian drew his revolver and fired, wounding the officer in the shoulder.

The stranger then started to run, when the wounded officer and Policeman Reynolds opened fire upon him and he fell dead in his tracks.

There was nothing on the person of the deceased to lead to his identity, but papers found show that he was from Barbersville, Ky.

The Sedalia boys can play ball.
There is no mistake about it.

Of course when it comes to real ball playing Jefferson City is "not in it" with Sedalia, as the events of yesterday clearly show.

ATTEND the charity concerts. No one will miss the few cents charged for admission and the aggregate will give the charity officials a fund to relieve pressing wants.

We still talk hard times in the United States, and yet it appears that this country stands alone in showing an increase of exports during the first three months of 1894 as compared with same period last year.

SENATOR QUAY, one of the trusted republican leaders, tells the senate investigating committee that he speculates in sugar trust stock. That "investigation" has covered the republican leaders with confusion instead of panning out the hoped for campaign material.

The savage condemnation which is visited upon the senate sugar clause in the tariff bill, says the Free Press, ought to attract attention afresh to the iniquity of the McKinley tariff. Bad as the sugar schedule is conceded to be it is testified by the trust men that it is only one-half as favorable to them as the existing tariff.

If the season continues favorable Central Missouri will produce the largest yield of corn ever harvested in this section. The growing crop was never in better condition, the fields are clear of grass and weeds and never looked more promising. A big corn crop is always followed by good times locally. Even if the price is low every farmer has corn to sell and that means money in the pockets of the farmers and everybody else.

MONEY is abundant in the large cities and if, by common consent, the people will quit talking hard times idle capital will begin to seek investment and trade and commerce will revive. Capital is timid. It does not eat. It can lie idle. If everybody he meets talks hard times and predicts continued business depression it is pretty certain that the capitalist will lock his good money securely in his strong box and wait for the anticipated financial storm to expend its fury.

THE Globe-Democrat says, "The break which has just occurred in the McKinley line in Ohio, has taken the country by surprise." The "break in the McKinley line" is not of recent date. It occurred in 1890, when the people of the country repudiated McKinleyism; it grew wider in 1892, when the verdict against the policy advocated by the Ohio leader was more strongly emphasized. Whenever the people have a chance to think and to record their honest opinions the break will widen. The country is tired of McKinleyism.

The charge is openly made that the row over the sugar schedule in the senate has been worked up by the sugar trust in the hope that the exposures made would induce the house to knock out the senate schedule and thus enable the trust to proceed under the McKinley tariff, which is far more favorable to the trust than even the senate schedule. It is possible that the trust schemers have over-shot the mark. The demand for free refined sugar has grown so strong that congressmen and senators who are wise will listen to it, and while the trust may have gained a little time and prolonged the life of the McKinley law for a short time, it has really dugged its own grave.

THE COMING CAMPAIGN.

In the course of an interview with a St. Louis Republic reporter Gov. Stone says:

"Shall I take part in the campaign? Certainly. Almost every mail brings me invitations to speak, and I intend to respond to as many as I can spare time from my office to accept. Rest assured that those of us who made the Kansas City platform and the constituencies we represented will do our full duty. The very necessities of the case compel us to fight for victory, whatever others may do. I think we can win, and we will win if we avoid mistakes and all pull together."

Of course Governor Stone will take part in the campaign! He will deal powerful blows in defense of democratic principles.

So will ex-Governor Francis, Hon. R. Graham Frost and all of the leaders whom the party has honored in the past and whom it proposes to honor again in the future.

There is no real diversity of opinion among Missouri democrats on the principle of bimetallism or tariff reform.

Democrats may differ as to the policy of a sweeping change in our coinage laws or tariff duties, but when the party convention has decided what is the wisest policy all real democrats will go to work to make the victory as signal as possible.

All Missouri democrats desire to see silver restored to its rightful place as a money metal, and after it has been decided that a certain policy is the surest and speediest way to reach that end, there are no longer divisions or differences in the party.

The DEMOCRAT expects to see all the democratic leaders in the harness, and the governor and the ex-governor will be foremost in the fight. The only rivalry between them will be as to which can do the best work for the party whose principles he venerates and whose members have conferred the honor of leadership upon him.

Missouri has a record to make this year.

The empire state of the west—destined to be the empire state of the union—is contesting for the honor of writing the national platform and furnishing presidential candidate of the democracy in 1896.

To win this honor all past victories should be surpassed this year.

BLUE, INDEED.

This Is the Way Gen. Odon Guitar Sees It Politically.

Gen. Odon Guitar, the republican war horse of Boone county, was in Rochepot for a few hours last Friday, says the Commercial.

The general, as usual, was full of politics and anxious to let off steam. He stated that, in his opinion, it was useless to place a candidate in the field against the Hon. John T. Heard, as our worthy congressman would receive the fullest support of the democratic party of his district, and besides would capture fully one-third of the republican votes.

Guitar is right in his assertion that Heard can poll a larger vote than any other congressman in the state. When asked if there would be a republican ticket placed in the field, the general winked knowingly and replied: "You democrats nominate Kneisley and see."

SEDALIA'S MILITIA.

A History of the Queen City's Military Companies.

THE SEDALIA RIFLES.

The Old and the New Organizations—Prompt Response to Duty on Two Occasions.

It was sometime in the year 1878 that the original Sedalia Rifles were mustered into service, with Mr. H. C. Demuth, the commander of the present company, as captain, Mr. Wm. Latour as first lieutenant and Mr. J. D. Russell as second lieutenant.

On June 30th, 1883, the term of enlistment having expired, and an insufficient number of the members to warrant continuance of the organization being willing to re-enlist, the company was disbanded by order of Mr. J. D. Waddell, at that time adjutant general.

Notwithstanding the fact that this company served but one term, it became very proficient in military science and was a source of great pride to the citizens of Sedalia.

From June 30, 1883, Sedalia was without a military organization until March, 1890. Early in the year a correspondence between Adjutant General Wickham, who was very anxious to enlist a company in this city, and Mr. L. T. Beck, now first lieutenant of the company, the result of which was the organization of the present Sedalia Rifles, on March 24, 1890.

Mr. H. C. Demuth having been earnestly solicited to take charge of the new company, was elected captain, and has continued in that office until the present time. The other commissioned officers selected were H. T. Allen, first lieutenant, and L. T. Beck, second lieutenant.

In October, 1890, the second regiment was organized and the Sedalia Rifles, as Company D, became a part of it.

In November, 1890, First Lieutenant H. T. Allen having resigned, Mr. L. T. Beck was elected to fill the vacancy, and First Sergeant Walter Gould was elected second lieutenant to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Beck's promotion.

In December, 1891, Mr. Gould was succeeded as second lieutenant by Mr. W. H. Ramsey, who in turn was succeeded by Mr. G. T. Edmonson, present second lieutenant, in March, 1893.

The company has been under orders on two occasions. The first was when an attempt was made to lynch Murderer Turlington at Booneville, in 1890. The order was issued by Governor Francis, and in less than one hour after its receipt sixty men, comprising very nearly the entire strength of the company, were in line ready for duty. This occurred when the company had not yet been in service two months.

On the second occasion a request for aid in protecting a prisoner was received from Sheriff Smith at 11:30 o'clock at night, and in less than an hour three-fourths of the company assembled at the armory equipped for duty.

The Rifles have attended four camps of instruction, at all of which a very creditable showing was made. The first was at Camp Holden, near Excelsior Springs, in the fall of 1890. The next was at Camp Wickham, near St. Joseph, in 1891. The third was at Camp Caffee, at Carthage, in 1892, and the last was at Camp Mitchell, at Nevada, in 1893.

During July of the present year they will attend the annual camp of instruction at Springfield, Mo.

The Rifles have made many public appearances, the most important occasions being the attendance at the funeral of Gen. W. T. Sherman at St. Louis in the early part of 1891; and the participation in the dedicatory ceremonies at the opening of the World's Columbian exposition at Chicago in October, 1892.

The following are the present commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the company:

H. C. Demuth, captain.
L. T. Beck, first lieutenant; G. S. Edmonson, second lieutenant.
W. J. Wilson, first sergeant; S. W. James, quartermaster sergeant.
Sergeants: H. O. Moss, A. E. Sweet, W. O. Harris, W. J. Zimmerschied, Geo. Smith.
Corporals: E. J. Keck, W. S. Cue, Jno. Geotze, Jno. Taylor, R. C. Lester, W. J. Whipple.

In addition to these, two regimental non-commissioned officers are attached to Co. D, viz: S. P. Johns, jr., color sergeant, and Henry Miller, chief trumpeter.

TERRORIZED.

Farmers in Oregon in Fear of a Drive of Boars.

There is terror among the people living on Mud Bay point, Oregon, caused by the roaming through that country of a drove of wild hogs. There are a dozen or two of the wild beasts. They have been breeding there for about seven years, becoming wilder all the time, but not until within the last two months have they made themselves dangerous.

They are of a large-boned variety and have grown to an enormous height. They also have tusks. They live mostly on the skunk cabbage growing in the swamps, but as this provender has run low they have become further enraged with hunger and are seeking other food.

Only a few days ago they took after a fleet-footed pony and ran him down, killing him almost instantly. The residents of the point have found it necessary to keep their stock within doors. Occasionally, however, an animal has become loose and lost its life by the attacks of the boars.

Nobody in the neighborhood dares go out after night, and extreme caution is exercised when out of doors during daylight.

A number of expert riders and marksmen living in Olympia are contemplating the formation of a company to engage in a wild boar hunt on Mud Bay point, and it is probable that the fierce drove will be exterminated. The people living there do not feel equal to the task alone.

No. 1027.
TREASURY DEPARTMENT—OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY, WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10th, 1894.—WHEREAS, William A. Latimer, a National bank examiner, duly authorized and directed by me to examine the affairs of "The First National Bank of Sedalia," located in the city of Sedalia, county of Pettis and state of Missouri, has, after due examination of its affairs, reported to me that the said bank is insolvent, and being satisfied that the said bank is insolvent and unable to pay its just and legal debts, Now, therefore, I, James H. ## IT WAS DEAD EASY.

Sedalia Defeated Jefferson City Yesterday.

THE SCORE WAS 9 TO 4.

A Very Pretty Contest, in Which the Home Club Had Very Much the Best of It.

Jefferson City has a pretty fair ball team, but Sedalia has a better one, as was demonstrated to the satisfaction of all in a game played at Association park yesterday afternoon in the presence of the largest attendance that has been seen at a ball game here in several years.

The Capital City players came in on a special train at 9 o'clock, accompanied by about seventy-five of their admirers, and were confident that the thrashing of the previous Sabbath was to be repeated.

The visitors stopped at Sicher's, and it cannot be denied that they were generally looked upon as winners.

At 3:30 o'clock game was called, at which time there were several hundred spectators in attendance. The grand stand was filled to overflowing, while it was necessary to stretch a rope to keep the crowd off of the players' territory. In addition, there were scores of buggies and carriages containing ladies and gentlemen, and the fair sex took as much interest in the contest as did their escorts.

Sedalia went to the bat first and scored two runs in her half of the inning, the result setting the admirers of the home team in a splendid humor.

When Jefferson City went to the bat Harrison and Roach were in the points for the future capital, and the visitors were soon convinced that the picnic of the previous Sabbath was not to be theirs, except in their minds.

The game was, in brief, one of the most interesting that has been played in Sedalia for years. The visitors worked heroically to overcome the constant lead the home team kept piling up, but all to no purpose, and they were finally forced to succumb to defeat by a score of 9 to 4.

The pitching of Harrison was unusually fine. He was determined, if possible, to wipe out the sting of the previous week's defeat, and at critical stages he sent 'em in like a Mullane or a Rusie.

"Roxy" Roach, at the receiving end, never played better ball in Sedalia than he did yesterday. He was out for victory, as several Jefferson lads who endeavored to steal second learned to their sorrow. He watched every point closely, and on two occasions convinced the captain of the Capital City that he didn't know as much about the rules of the game as he imagined he did.

In short, every member of the home team played well, and especially Swearingen, who never missed an opportunity of capturing everything in sight, while as a "slider" he opened the eyes of the visitors.

Let no one labor under the impression, however, that Jefferson City hasn't a pretty fair ball club. They are hard workers, and, as the Tribune claimed, never let up until the last man was out.

The umpiring was satisfactorily looked after by Henry Edwards for Sedalia and Mr. Grieshammer for Jefferson City. There were two or three cases of grumbling, but none of the decisions were "off" to any great extent, and taken from start to finish the game was one of the best played in Sedalia in years.

The score:

Short Stops.

"Brother" wasn't in it to any great extent.

Harry Gatlin took in everything that came his way.

As a thrower, Olmsted is all right by a large majority.

A Sunday game will soon be played with Moberly.

Sedalia appears to be a pretty good Sunday ball town.

For a 200-pounder, Norton gets around in pretty good shape.

The town was turned over to "Eldred and "Roxy" last night.

There was nothing wrong with Brace at second. He's all right.

Randolph is as much at home on a ball field as he is in a hotel office.

There was no attempt on the part of the authorities to stop the game.

The visitors returned home on their special train at 8 o'clock p. m.

Taking them hot from the bat, liners and all, is just to Swearingen's liking.

Joe Roe doesn't play ball on Sunday, but he witnessed the game nevertheless.

It has been a long time since as many ladies were present as was the case yesterday.

To draw it mildly, Sedalia's battery was fifty per cent stronger than Jefferson City's.

Whipprecht never let anything get by him, even if he did fall down a couple of times.

Droste weakened perceptibly, and Newbill wasn't in it with "Roxy" in getting 'em to second.

Zuber knows how to play short all right enough, and Horton is likewise at home at center.

The ladies who accompanied the visitors took the defeat much harder than did the players themselves.

George Scherer, one of Sedalia's old-time players, was on the grounds and pulled for the Queen City lads.

George H. Healey, circulator for the Gazette, officiated as official scorer instead of attending Sabbath school.

Dr. Dresel, as manager, was in high glee, of course, and was warmly congratulated by his old army comrade, Dr. Mills.

The Jefferson City umpire officiated not only in that capacity, but also as player and coacher, and did well in each position.

Sedalia and Jefferson City can always draw a crowd, and there is no reason why their contests should not always be friendly ones.

It has been clearly demonstrated that Sedalia can play ball when she wants to. Let's have more such contests patterned after that of yesterday.

Lindsey is an old-timer, but he plays ball just as well today as he did thirty or forty years ago, at which time he first played against the Sedalias.

Harry Swearingen, of the Arkansas league, and Bob Johns, of the Wabash college club at Crawfordsville, Ind., are to be added this week and will greatly strengthen the team.

The visitors missed the ridges and hollows of their home grounds, but if they desire to be considered ball players they must learn to play on first-class grounds, such as Sedalia has.

The Jefferson Citys go to Sedalia today to play the team of that city. They may not win both games, but there will be no quitting in the seventh inning if Sedalia should happen to be a few runs ahead. The boys will give a good account of themselves—Jefferson City Tribune, 17th.

The good account is thus set forth: Sedalia, 9; Jefferson City, 4.

Quite a crowd will go from this city to witness the game of base ball between Jefferson City and Sedalia at the latter town. It is reported in Sedalia that the law officers will be asked to stop the game. A Rev. Van Wagner has been quite busy the last few days stirring up a sentiment in opposition to Sunday base ball. The Sedalia Democrat says that the game will go ahead and that none of the players will be disturbed.—Jefferson City Tribune, 17th.

Daltons in Saline.

The citizens of Herndon and vicinity, says the Marshall Democrat-News, will remember Charles and Lytle Dalton who in 1878-9 lived upon the farm that was soon afterwards purchased by F. M. Christy. It then belonged to an uncle of theirs named Robert Noel, who traded for it the year before. He sent his two nephews, Lyt. and Charlie Dalton, from California to crop it one year. They did so, but failed as farmers and skipped out, leaving numerous debts behind. They were brothers of the late Bill Dalton, the bank robber and all around thief, and were known as tough citizens, but not dangerous men.

THE RECEIVER CASE.

The Appointment of Mr. J. C. Thompson Stands.

SUPREME COURT OPINION.

It Was Handed Down This Morning in the Celebrated Narrow Gauge Railway Suit.

If J. C. Thompson were in Sedalia today he would be at liberty to enter upon his duties as receiver for the Sedalia, Warsaw and Southwestern railway, unless prevented by injunction proceedings or imprisonment, the supreme court of the state having rendered a decision to that effect this forenoon.

It will be remembered that Carlos S. Greeley and others some time ago filed an application in the Pettis county circuit court, asking for the appointment of a receiver for the road in question, and Judge Richard Field appointed J. C. Thompson to the position.

He was prevented from accepting, however, by the Missouri Pacific appealing the case to the supreme court, where it has been hanging fire for several months. It was reached this morning, a telegram to the DEMOCRAT says, and the appeal was dismissed, which leaves Judge Field's appointment stand.

George P. B. Jackson, attorney for the plaintiffs, said to a DEMOCRAT reporter that he did not know what would be done, now that Mr. Thompson was absent; and Judge Shirk, one of the attorneys for the Missouri Pacific, refused to discuss the case until he had heard from Mr. S. H. Priest, general attorney for the company.

Owing to the strong probability of Mr. Thompson remaining outside of the United States for an indefinite period, it is expected that Judge Field will appoint a new receiver at an early date.

Coach, Cab and Caboose.

Engineer Tim Gallivan came home from Lexington this morning.

Meck Inch, the well known baggageman, is down from New Franklin today.

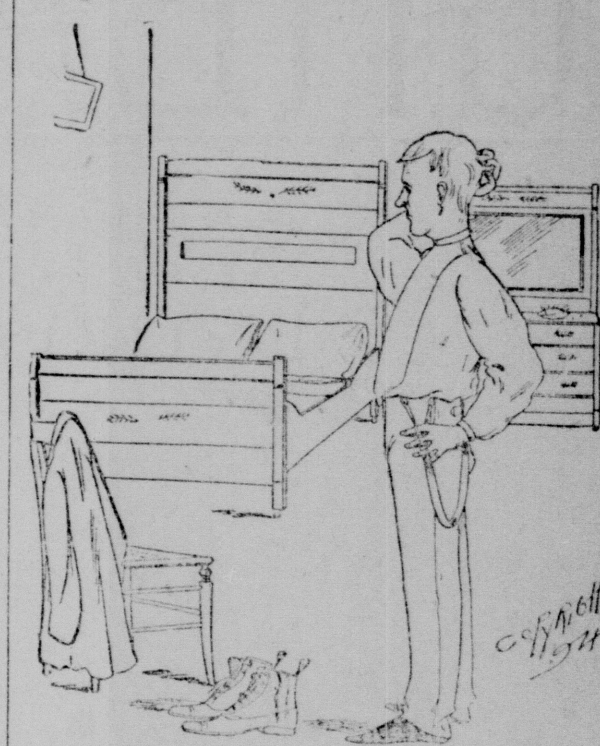

Four full trains of coal passed east over the Missouri Pacific yesterday for St. Louis.

Secret Service Officer Pat Lally, jolly as ever, is in town today in the interest of the Missouri Pacific.

SENT FROM SEDALIA.

A Chapter on the Fellow Who Worked the Y. M. C. A.

A young man sent to the penitentiary from Sedalia was thus referred to in the St. Louis Republic of Sunday:

W. B. Alexander is thin and cadaverous, plausible and oleaginous, and red-headed. His head is broad and bulging behind, and tapers rapidly forward until his face, keen and pale, looks like the blade of an ax. His eyes are gray and nervous. He wears gold-rimmed spectacles.

He smiles constantly when he talks. His language is that of a college-bred man, as, indeed, he is. And yet he's a common thief—though he doesn't say so.

Alexander is an Englishman. He speaks French, Italian and German as fluently as his native tongue. He must belong to a "good family" in England, because he gets fine letters and as large remittances now as the prison authorities will permit him to receive. Alexander is not his name, so he says, and in this he is born out by the letters he gets from England. He robbed his room-mate at Sedalia of $150, got drunk on the money and didn't get far away from the town until the officers caught him, and a jury gave him three years in the penitentiary. He is only 25 years old.

L. O. O. F. MEMORIAL.

The Day Appropriately Observed in Sedalia Sunday.

Sunday was Memorial day with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah of Sedalia, and it was observed in an appropriate and beautifully impressive manner.

At 1 o'clock p. m. more than 100 members of Neapolis lodge and Sedalia encampment, No. 33, assembled at the hall of Neapolis lodge, in the Cassidy building, and, preceded by the famed Military band, marched to the Christian church, where the ritualistic exercises of the order were conducted by Noble Grand Geo. E. McNeil and Chaplain J. W. Trader. An eloquent address was delivered by Rev. A. P. Cool, president of Geo. R. Smith college, after which the procession re-formed and marched from the church to Broadway, thence to Ohio and north to Third, thence east to Engineer and north to the cemetery.

After a dirge by the band, each grave was decorated, appropriate remarks being made at each mound by Chaplain Trader, which concluded the exercises of the afternoon, and the members returned to the city and dispersed.

Price of Missouri Land.

James Seibert, of the state auditor's office, who was in the city yesterday, reported the sale of a piece of farm property, which indicates that Missouri dirt is held in high esteem by intelligent farmers. A few days ago 240 acres off of a quarter section belonging to the Sterling Price farm, twelve miles south of Keytesville, Chariton county, was sold for $140 an acre. The purchasers were two German farmers, William and Henry Brandt, who are highly pleased with their bargain.

Show People to Marry.

W. A. Maltby, one of the variety performers with the Sayman Concert and Remedy company, is to be married this evening to Miss Ella Douglass, of Clinton. The ceremony is to be performed in public, on the show grounds, by a Sedalia justice of the peace. Miss Douglass was formerly a dining room girl at the Heckler house in Clinton and for a short time was a member of the concert company.

Shot a Mad Dog.

Police Officer Creasey was notified yesterday evening that a supposed mad dog was at large on South Washington avenue. The officer found the alleged rabid animal, a large, shaggy-haired shepherd, and shot it through the head, thereby putting an end to the dog's miserable existence and the excitement over hydrophobia at the same time.

The Organ of the Wrecker.

The Sedalia Gazette talks like it was in sympathy with J. C. Thompson, the absconding cashier of that city. How any newspaper can condone such rascality is a mystery past finding out.—Kansas City Times.

Wanted.

An experienced salesman to canvass city and country trade in a specialty line. Reference required. Address A., this office.

TRAILED A THIEF.

A Shot Gun and Some Clothing Quickly Recovered.

Chas. and James Rymer, of this city, returned Sunday from Fairfield, Benton county, where they had been on a hog-buying trip. In this capacity they rented a house and turned their hogs loose in the lot.

Friday night their house was broken into and a breech-loading shot gun, some shells and a coat and vest were taken. Suspicion rested upon Bud Wright, who was visited by the Messrs. Rymer and charged with the crime.

At first he denied it, but subsequently confessed and escorted the Rymer to the place where the stolen articles were concealed. The gun was found in the top of a tree, while half a mile distant the clothing and shells were found covered up with a lot of weeds. The thief was not arrested, notwithstanding he bears a bad reputation in the neighborhood where he lives.

Bargains in Vehicles.

Road wagons, $35; former price $45; farm wagons, $50 to $75; buggies, from $65 up; spring wagons, from $50 up. All kind of wagons made to order. Horse shoeing and repair work a specialty, at E. J. Kiesling's, 314 West Second street.

Christening Sunday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kirchhoffer, of Green Ridge, was christened yesterday morning at the German Evangelical church, immediately after the matin services.

Missouri State Teachers.

The Missouri State Teachers' association will meet in annual convention at Pertle Springs tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday, June 19, 20 and 21, and Sedalia will be well represented.

Attend the Benefit Entertainment.

Help out the Rifles by attending the benefit entertainment to be given by the Sedalia Thespians, under the direction of Wm. Latour, at the opera house, Tuesday night, the 19th.

Smoke the National Golden Rod, the best 10c cigar in the city. Manufactured by C. Honkomp, 218 Lamine street.

Go to Forest park today. Open cars every half hour in the afternoon.

Smoke the "Lone Tree" cigar, the best 5 cent cigar in the city. Manufactured by C. Honkomp.

Fine Oranges.

A fine lot of Mediterranean Sweets, the finest orange on the market, at the Candy Palace.

The East Sedalia ladies of the Christain church will give an ice cream social at G. C. McClure's, 1213 East Seventh on Tuesday, June 19.
